Global IT Challenge For Youth with Disabilities
25 – 29 November 2019, Busan, Korea

Guidelines for applicants

1. Type of disabilities (Vision, Hearing, Development, Physical) recognized by the association and Youth with disabilities at the age of 14~22 based on the application date. (University or graduated students are NOT allowed)

2. Persons who completed eLearning education with excellent results. (Should be able to work with MS-Office, Internet Explorer web browser, Movie Maker and Scratch program)

3. Persons who can communicate and participate in contents in English

4. Other participation and award regulations
   1) The Youth who never took an award of GITC can participate in GITC even though they join GITC second time.
   2) For individual competition, Best winners are eligible to participate only, but except for all awards in the same event.
   3) The Youth who took an award of 'Excellence, Good' on individual competition can only take superior awards.

   4) For group competition, if any member has experience Best award with same competition, that group can't take Best award.
   5) For group competition, the group doesn't include 4 type of disabilities, they can participate in any competition but they can't take an award. (For group competition, Group need to be composed by 4 type of the Youth with disabilities for awarding)

* 4 type of disabilities : Vision, Hearing, Development, Physical